MISSOULA –

The University of Montana will hold a public hearing Tuesday, Oct. 8, to discuss plans for construction of a new housing complex for students, located south of Dornblaser Field.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. in the Community Center at University Villages.

The housing complex, which is scheduled to open by fall semester 2004, will have 216 two-bedroom apartments. It will be built on UM property on the corner of Higgins and Pattee Canyon Drive near Dornblaser and the University Golf Course.
